„He who joyfully marches to music in rank and file has already earned my contempt. He has been given a large brain by mistake, since for him the spinal cord would fully suffice. This disgrace to civilization should be done away with as soon as possible. Heroism at command, senseless brutality, deplorable love-of-country stance, how violently I hate all this, how despicable and ignominious war is; I would rather be torn to shreds than be a part of so base an action!“
Albert Einstein
It is my conviction that killing under the cloak of war is nothing but an act of murder.“
